

Volunteer Opportunity: Assistant Camp Director

About Us

Camp Quality provides free, inclusive-year round programs for children with cancer and blood disorders that support the whole family through fun camp adventures. We facilitate a 1-week overnight camp program, hosted at Camp Brebeuf in Rockwood, Ontario. Camp Quality was brought to Canada in 1988, initiated by a group of dedicated volunteers in Southern Ontario. Our overnight camp programs serve campers between the ages of 7 - 17.

The Role

The Assistant Camp Director role is an unpaid volunteer position. This position reports to the Camp Director.

Role Overview

The Assistant Camp Director will support the mission of Camp Quality by overseeing the planning and developing of activities, schedules, entertainment, materials and resources for camper and family programs. They will ensure that programs and activities demonstrate the fundamentals of intentional programming and will work with the Program Team to creatively plan outcome-based activities that are adapted to the medical psychosocial and developmental needs of our campers. They are a key figure in the risk management of camp programs, ensuring safety protocols and guidelines are followed and supporting the Camp Director with emergency procedures. In absence of the Camp Director they are the lead on-site during programs. The Assistant Camp Director works closely with the Camp Director in the supervision and administration of the camp budget.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Assist the Camp Director with coordination and task management of the Camp Organizing Committee.
- Support the Program team in developing and delivering the camp schedule.
- Support the Camp Director and Sr. Director of Programs to plan and deliver volunteer training.
- Assist the Camp Director in any weather related incident, assuring the safety of all participants.
- Provides feedback to volunteers as needed.

Preferred Skills, Qualifications and Experience

- Passion for the Camp Quality Mission.
- Previous experience working with children and/or special needs populations in a camp setting.
- Proven experience in facilitating activities with youth.
- Strong Collaboration and team building skills.
- Strong Communication skills, both verbal and written.
- Demonstrate flexibility, creative program-solving and optimism in the face of obstacles.
- Confidence in public speaking and leading large groups.

How to Apply

To apply please contact Julia Zinn, Camp Director at julia.zinn@campquality.org.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

We're an equal opportunity organization

Inclusion is at the heart of what we do at camp. Camp Quality works to create inclusive spaces and programs for campers, volunteers and staff - free of discrimination based on age, race, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity. We encourage all qualified candidates to apply.

Accessibility

Camp Quality Canada welcomes and encourages applications from people with disabilities. Accommodations are available on request for candidates taking part in all aspects of the selection process.
